That's what I am going to was imperfect. In all, Mr. Regan do." bought $115,000 worth of silver from the company.

The silversmith's lawyer, George C. ik, said to-day they had sued developed a bushy appearance before Mr. Regan for $5,000 they allege he my very face.

Mr. Regan said he would offer numerous pieces of he silver in evidence to sushis claim that it was not good. His lawyer, C. J. Earley, will ask today in the Supreme Court for additional time in which to draw the hotel man's complaint against the company.

Lawyer Comstock declared the silvermiths "look upon Mr. Regan's suit merely as an effort on his part to gain mind to start a Drug Store, not as so many men before him had started one, but in his own way. He had a definite purpose and he stuck to it. That Surpose was to sell the VERY HIGHEST QUALITY of DRUG STORE GOODS at the VERY LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES. That was sixty years ago, and the man was William B. RIMER. During the entire history of the RIMER Drug Establishment these principles have been rigidly adhered to, and to-day fourteen of the most successful Drug Stores in the world testify to the isdom of that policy.
